

Fiscal Year 2022 Tribal Homeland Security Grant Program Key Changes

Release Date: May 13, 2022

The Tribal Homeland Security Grant Program \(THSGP\) plays an important role in the implementation of the National Preparedness System by supporting the building, sustaining and delivery of core capabilities essential to achieving the National Preparedness Goal of a secure and resilient nation. This document outlines key changes for the fiscal year (FY) 2022 THSGP.

National Priority Areas for Fiscal Year (FY) 2022

Three National Priority Areas have been added in FY 2022, and one has been removed compared to the FY 2021 Tribal Homeland Security Grant Program (THSGP). The FY 2022 THSGP National Priority Areas are:

- Enhancing Cybersecurity;
- Enhancing the Protection of Soft Targets/Crowded Places;
- Combating Domestic Violent Extremism;
- Intelligence and Information Sharing (new);
- Community Preparedness and Resilience (new); and
- Election Security (new).

The National Priority Area, Emerging Threats, has been removed. However, all costs remain allowable under the program.

As in FY 2021, investments that sufficiently address one or more of the National Priority Areas will receive an additional 20% score increase.
